

TRANSPORT WORKERS FIGHTING BACK

ORGANISING GLOBALLY

Campaign checklist

Has your union:

- Reviewed your past activities on this campaign and set clear objectives for the Action Week?
- Identified how the Action Week can support existing union campaigns?
- Formulated clear demands and campaign strategies?
- Decided which groups of workers to target in the campaign?
- Decided which locations to hold your events, nationally and internationally?
- Formulated a plan and activities for the Action Week?
- Set-up a working group or identified a responsible person internally in your union to liaise with the national and regional offices?
- Informed the membership of the campaign through meetings, union media, leaflets, circulars and publications?
- Included women and young members in the preparation and implementation of the campaign?
- Set a planning timetable to build-up to the Action Week?
- Identified union meetings and seminars for further discussions?
- Budgeted the activities for the Action Week?
- Produced materials to support activities?
- Contacted unions in neighbouring countries for joint actions, if relevant?
- Informed other trade union organisations (including other sectors and national centres)?
- Briefed the media?
- Designated a person to report events to the ITF?
- Discussed follow-up activities after the Action Week?
